WEDNESDAY, APRIL 25, 1877.

THE funeral of the late PRINCE LELETO HOKU, heir apparent to the throne, will take The funeral service will be at the Palace, at 10 a. m., His Lordship Bishop Willis officiating. At 11 o'clock the process sion will form, and move through King and Nuuanu streets to the Royal Mausoleum, in Nunanu Valley, where the remains of so many of Hawaii's Aliis repose.

ANCIENT philosophy taught that "whom the gods love die young," and the conditions of life during the past twenty centuries have not altered so much as to invalidate the proposition that, for many reasons, those who comor on the Throne as Queen after it shall have take their departure in early life are particularly fortunate. In youth life is exuberant and joyful. The coroding cares of more advanced age are unknown and unheeded.

Under ordinary conditions existence during childhood and youth is one long-drawn plea sure, and, knowing as we do, that this period of buoyanev and gladness will inevitably b succeeded by disappointments and sorrows late Royal Higuness the Prince William Pitt Le-LETORICK KALANOOLEWA from the date of this no-should we mourn when we see a friend in the until two works after the funeral, and will freshness and vigor of early manhood called away before his hopes have been blighted. and his nature soured by the trials of life?

WE publish to-day on the fourth page a part of a lecture recently delivered in California by C. T. Hopkins, Esq., a well-known lawyer of San Francisco, and an able writer on political economy. His book, entitled the "American Idea," is intended as a text book for schools, and forms the most succinct and at the same time vigorous treatise on the United States Constitution ever written. The lecture should be read by every young man and woman in the country, and its perusal by ome of the older members of socie'y might prove advantageous. The principles there inculcated, if laid to heart, cannot fail of producing the most salutary results.

ADVICES per barkentine Jane A. Falkin burg state that Wade Hampton has been decided to be the legal governor of South Carolina by the Cabinet, and the United States troops have been ordered out of the State House at Columbia. The news of this determination on the part of the Cabinet, caused unbounded demonstrations of joy at Charleston and other parts of the State. The Inter-Ocean's Washington special of April 2nd says: Chamberlain dined with the President to-night, There is the best of feeling between them, and though this decision virtually destroys Chamberlain's hopes and gives the government to Hampton, yet the former appreciates the President's position and gives him credit for a sincere interest. The President has repeatedly expressed sorrow that duty compelled him to sacrifice his friend, and takes no pains to conceal his regret that South Carolina must pass from Chamberluin's able hands.

Ir the telegraphic news from London, published this morning, can be relied on, the treaty of peace between the European powers has been approved and signed, and there will be ne war at present between Bussia and Turkey. It is reported that the British Embassador at St. Petersburg "had a stormy interview with Prince Gortschakoff. The latter used very energetic language relative to England's refesul to make any advances toward a peaceful solution. This interview, it was thought, would destroy the hopes of peace. However, better council prevailed, for a telegram was sent to Count Schouvaloff in which Russia made another step toward concession. The telegram authorized Schouvaloff to embody Russia's promise to disarm in the memorandum, which memorandum may if necessary be read in Parliament. Following are the conditions attached to the promise: "That the Porte make peace with Moutenegro, accept the protocol, and send an Embassador to St. Petersburg to arrange the matter of demobilization." On the 30th of March the proctocol was signed by

A Bulgarian Massacre in California

THE appeals of the disreputable portion of disreputable California politicians have proof the disgraceful affair, condeaming it in unqualified terms. The Sacramento Union says: "protection" against Chinese competition, while dustardly white assassins are doing their best to convince the world that Mongolian or any other kind of civilization must be present and heard. If the majority be dispreferable to that illustrated by these atro- placed by artifice, the result is falsehood. If cious outrages. All the efforts of the people of the Pacific Coast to secure limitation of it is an oppression. In either case the prin-Chinese immigration must be impotent so long as American brutality and barbarism are suffered to display themselves in this hideous fashion. This is the way to arouse such an universal sympathy on behalf of the Chinese as will drive everything before it, and sink those who oppose them under the crushing weight of national wrath and denunciation, For there is no influential, or respectable, or decent element in this country that is prepared to declare itself in sympathy with cowardly assussins or incendiaries, or which will not repudiate and spurn all such, and cothere any class of Chinese which is not a more desirable element in a civilized community than these murderous villains." The following show the tone of the Eastern papers, regarding this Bulgarian slanghter : The civilized world is not very favorably impressed with the condition of things on the Pacific slope. Unless these outrages are checked the efficiency of the authorities and the humanity of the people will be seriously questioned.—Washington National Republican.

There is one of two things the Federal Govern-neat ought to do at once; Either abrogate its ment ought to do at once; Either abrogate its existing treaty with China and order every Chinaman out of the country forth with, or clae employ all its authority and all its force for the protection of these people. It is an unspeakable outrage upon law, justice and humanity to allow the anti-Chinese crusade to go on as it is now going. It we cannot apply some remedy which will reach and cure the discase, let us confess that American liberty is the worst sham the world has ever seen.—St. Louis Republican.

Public opinion in California is not educated up to the point of Chinese extermination. But it is evident that the brutal class, whose doings are now denounced in public meetings, are only following out the legitimate teachings of some of the better educated detragogines who have discussed the ques-tion from the stump.—New York Tones.

Whatever may be the best opinion respecting the Chinese question in California, good citizens there can have but one mind about crimes against the person and property of the obnoxious race like the Chico massacre. A few more outrages like this Chico massacre. A few more outrages like this, said the sympathy of the whole country will be not only with the outraged, but with all their kith and kin. It is hard that the rational and humane adjustment of a delicate and difficult question should be thus embarrassed by the murderous interference of the ignorant, passionate, unscruptious and blood-thirsty. However, we have great confidence in the general good sense of the California commenity.—New York Tribune.

It is to be hoped that the reaction which the Chico massacre has already brought about will result in an acknowledgment of the valuable qualifies of industry and docility that undoubtedly belong to the Chinese character.—Brooklys (N. Y.)

The Electoral Franchise.

THE political situation of this Kingdom is an anomaly, for which we are confident no counterpart can be found in any land on the globe, unless it be in some of the Southern States of North America, where the negro element is largely in excess. In the most advanced countries of Europe there are still to be found two classes, viz : the few, the rich, the intelligent, who control the government and the many, the masses, the poor, the ignorant, who are allowed almost no voice in the management of public affairs. Within the last few generations history exhibits a gradual extension of the right of suffrage, but in every country but Hawaii this right has been con ceded only when the wrongs suffered by the lower classes have wrought them up to such a state of exasperation that to refuse their demands was fraught with peril to the integrity of the State. Thus in every monarchi cal country, but this, the right has followed the capacity of the people to appreciate and intelligently use it. Here we behold the novel spectacle of a simple-minded King, unlearned in statesmanship, acting under the advice of well-meaning but inexperienced counsellors, endowing a people hardly emerg-

Why is nearly the whole educated class

united in uncompromising hostility to a purecause it would make the most numerous not named in that treaty. The increase of class, that of manual laborers the strongest power; that many of the educated classes would think only just. It is because it would make them the sole power, because in every constituency the votes of that class would swamp and politically annihilate all other members of the community taken together.' TELEGRAMS in Portland papers of the 3rd Is not this exactly our situation, even under nstant inform us that the protocol has been | the slight limitations imposed on suffrage by classes here are in effect completely disfraninevitable. He declares that "the problem of constitutional organism is, in what manner the individuals composing the entire community are to be the California Press, and of the still more classed, so that no opinions or interests shall be unheard, or extinguished in representaduced their legitimate effect in the barbarous tion," and he quotes with approval the sentiand cold-blooded massacre at Chico of five ment of Guizot, that "the object of represen innocent Chinese. This object is only attained by the triumph of true majority, the minority constantly being the minority be excluded from the discussion ciple of representative government is cor rupted."

Charles Bradlaugh, an eminent and radical reformer in England, says, "even if universal suffrage were obtained, the people should know that a permanent and progressive de mocracy can only subsist usefully by permitting its opponents to be heard in the national deliberative assembly. Mr. Hare's plan permits minorities, and even comparatively small ones, to send their representatives to the assembly, thus affording every interest chance to be heard in its own behalf. Principles are represented rather than places; thus the adoption of the system here could not fail of producting a marked change for the better in the complexion of our Legislature, and would, as we firmly believe, guarantee the perpetuity of the elective franchise among
